

PERSONALITY

How are you like?

- Amusing: I told them a very amusing story.
- Brave: The brave soldier went back home.
- Charming: He is a very charming child.
- Clever: She is very clever; she is working on an important investigation.
- Cheerful: She was especially cheerful this morning.
- Kind / Pleasant / Gentle: It was kind of him to visit her in the hospital.
- Polite: He gave the teacher a polite answer.
- Cool: He is really cool.
- Bossy: She is known to be bossy; she always controls everyone.
- Clumsy: She wasn't a clumsy dancer.
- Envious: He was envious of his little brother.
- Foolish: I was foolish to believe all the lies that she told me.
- Jealous: He was jealous about her new relationship.
- Lazy: I was too lazy to get up in the morning.
- Moody: He is moody since he is sick.
- Nosy: He was a nosy person, he wanted to know everyone's secrets.
- Selfish: Peter was very selfish; he didn't let his toys to anyone.
- Vain: Paul is so vain, he thinks he is better than everyone else.
- Naughty: My dog is very naughty.
- Grumpy: She is always grumpy when she wakes up.

